5. Usage of the Account

5.1. The Client may manage the Account via the internet by logging in to his/her Online Account with his/her login name and Password or via Application.

5.2. Payment Transfers from the Client's Account may be executed:

5.2.1. to another user of the System;

5.2.2. to the Lithuanian, EU and foreign bank accounts (except for banks in foreign countries to which the Payment Transfers are forbidden; Satchel informs the Client about such countries in the System);

5.2.3. to accounts in other electronic payment systems specified in the System;

5.2.4. to other debit and credit cards using card to card payment services.

5.3. Funds may be transferred to the Account in different currencies. The Client will be shown the currency exchange rate valid at the moment of conversion before making any transaction in a different currency within the System. The exchange rate is constantly updated on the System.

5.3.1. For a payment order in Euro which is given by the Client as payer and the payee's bank account is held with a Payment Service Provider in the EU Member State or in another state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement, the Client agrees that Satchel shall ensure that the account of the Payment Service Provider of the Payee shall be credited with the payment amount the latest within 3 (three) working days from the time of receipt of the payment order from the Client.

5.3.2. For payment orders given by the Client to Satchel which relate to the provision by Satchel of any of the aforementioned payments in Euro and the payee's account is held with a payment service provide in the EU Member State or in another state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement, Satchel shall ensure that the payment service provider of the payee is credited with the payment amount the latest within 3 (three) working days from the time of receipt of the payment order from the Client.

5.3.3. For a payment order which is given by the Client as payer in the currency of the EU Member State other than Euro and the payee's account is held with a payment service provider in the EU Member State or in another state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement, the Client agrees that Satchel shall ensure that the payment service provider of the payee is credited with the payment amount the latest within 3 (three) working days from the time of receipt of the payment order from the Client.

5.3.4. For payment orders given by the Client as payer in a currency other than Euro or other than the currency of the EU Member State or other than the currency of a state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement, the Client agrees that the abovementioned time limits do not apply.

5.3.5. Additionally, the time limits do not apply in case that any data required to proceed the transaction which was given to Satchel by the Client, is erroneous.

5.3.6. In case that the Client is the payee of an incoming payment in a currency other than Euro or other than the currency of the EU Member State or other than the currency of a state which is a contracting party to the European Economic Area Agreement, the Client agrees that the aforementioned time limits do not apply.

5.4. A bank or another electronic money transfer system may apply fees for transferring money from/ to Client's Account to the Client's bank account, card or a payment account of another electronic payment system.

5.4.1. Satchel may charge additional fees if received funds have to be converted to another currency before it is possible to credit them to the Client's account. The Client will be informed about additional fees in advance.

5.5. Fees for the Services of Satchel are deducted from the Client's Account. In case the amount of money on the Account is less than the amount of the Payment Transfer and the price of the Service of Satchel, the Payment Transfer is not executed.

5.6. In case the Client indicates incorrect data of the recipient and the Payment Order is executed according to the data provided by the Client (e.g. the Client indicates a wrong account number), it shall be considered that Satchel has fulfilled its obligations properly and shall not repay the transferred amount to the Client. The Client shall directly contact the person who has received the transfer regarding the return of the money.

5.7. The Client is obliged to provide a Payment Order for the execution of the Payment Transaction in accordance with the instructions specified in the System and valid at the moment of transfer.

5.8. If the Payer submits an incorrect Payment Order or indicates incorrect data for the Payment Transfer, but the Payment Transfer has not been executed yet, the Client may request to correct the Payment Order.

5.9. If Satchel cannot credit funds indicated in the Payment Order to the recipient due to errors of the Client made in the Payment Order, the Payment Order may be cancelled and funds may be returned to the Client if it is technically possible.

5.10. In all cases, when Satchel receives a Payment Order but funds cannot be credited due to errors in the Payment Order or insufficiency of information, Satchel undertakes all possible measures to track the Payment Operation in order to receive accurate information and execute the Payment Order.

5.11. The Client, having noticed that money has been credited to his/ her Account by mistake or in other ways that have no legal basis, is obliged to notify Satchel about it immediately, however, no later than within 1 Business Day after noticing the wrongly credited money. The Client has no right to dispose of money that does not belong to him/ her. In such cases Satchel has the right and the Client gives an irrevocable consent to deduct the money from the his/ her Account without the Client's order. If the amount of money on the Client's Account is insufficient to debit the money credited by mistake, the Client unconditionally commits to repay Satchel the money credited by mistake in 3 (three) Business Days from the receipt of such request from Satchel.

5.12. The Client has the right to change the limits on Payment Transfers for the Account by completing an additional Online Account confirmation in accordance with the procedure established in the System and setting other limits for transfers by completing an additional confirmation. The Client may set the limits at his own discretion, however Satchel has the right to limit the size of the limits at any time. The Client may check the applied limits in the System. The Client will be notified about the limit's entry into force by e- mail and through the System.

5.13. The Client may check the Account balance and history by logging in to the Online Account or the Application. The Client can also find information about all applied fees and other fees deducted from the Account of the Client during a selected period of time.

5.14. The Client's confirmations, orders, requests, notifications and other actions performed through websites of third persons or other places by logging in to his/ her Account and identifying himself/ herself in this way are treated as conclusion of an agreement.

5.15. The management of the Account via the internet:

5.15.1. In order to execute a Payment Operation via the internet, the Client must fill in a Payment Order in the System and submit it for execution, electronically confirming in the System his/ her Consent to execute the Payment Order.

5.15.2. Submission of the Payment Order in the System is an agreement of the Client to execute the Payment Operation and cannot be cancelled (cancellation of the Payment Order is only possible until the execution of the Payment Order has been started – status of the Payment Order and possibility of cancellation are visible on the Online Account of the Client).

5.15.3. In case the amount of money on Account of the Client is insufficient to execute the Payment Transfer, the Payment Transfer is cancelled. The Client can file in the Payment Order again once the amount of money on Account becomes sufficient. If the amount of money on Account is insufficient in one currency, but there is a sufficient amount of money in another currency, the Payment Transfer shall not be executed until the Client converts other currency to the currency of the payment (except for cases, when the Client has ordered an automatic currency exchange feature or the transfer is intended for paying for goods or services via System).

5.16. The Payment Order (from the Account opened within Satchel to the other Account opened within Satchel) is considered received (calculation of the time period of execution of such Payment Order starts) on the day of its reception, or, if the moment of reception of the Payment Order is not a Business Day, the Payment Order is considered received on the nearest Business Day.

5.17. The Payment Order (outside the System) which was received by Satchel on a Business Day but not on business hours set by Satchel, is considered received on the nearest Business Day of Satchel.

5.18. All of the Payment Orders that the System receives are placed in a priority-based queue. Subsequently, Payment Orders are executed according to the queue, with execution occurring either immediately or as soon as preceding Payment Orders are completed.

5.19. Satchel has the right to record and store any Payment Order submitted by any of the means agreed on with Satchel, and to record and store information about all Payment Operations performed by the Client or according to Payment Orders of the Client. Records mentioned in the present clause may be submitted by Satchel to the Client and/ or third persons, who have the right to receive such data under the basis set forth in the legislation, as evidence confirming and/ or executed Payment Operations.

5.20. Payment Orders submitted by the Client shall comply with requirements for submission of such Payment Order and/ or content of the Payment Order set by the legal acts or by Satchel. Payment Orders submitted by the Client shall be formulated clearly, unambiguously, shall be executable and contain clearly stated will of the Client. Satchel does not undertake responsibility for errors, discrepancies, repetitions and/ or contradictions in Payment Orders submitted by the Client, including but not limited to, correctness of requisites of the Payment Order submitted by the Client. If the Payment Order submitted by the Client does not contain enough data or contains deficiencies, Satchel, regardless of the nature of deficiencies in the Payment Order, can refuse to execute such Payment Order, or execute it in accordance with data given in the Payment Order.

5.21. Satchel has the right to refuse to execute a Payment Order in case of a reasonable doubt that the Payment Order has been submitted by the Client or an authorized representative of the Client, Payment Order or the submitted documents are legitimate. In such cases, Satchel has the right to demand from the Client to additionally confirm the submitted Payment Order and/ or submit documents confirming the rights of persons to manage the funds held on the Account or other documents indicated by Satchel in a way acceptable to Satchel at expense of the Client. In cases mentioned in this point, Satchel acts with the aim to protect legal interests of the Client, Satchel and/ or other persons, thus, Satchel does not undertake the responsibility for losses which may arise due to the refusal to execute the submitted Payment Order.

5.22. Before executing the Payment Order submitted by the Client, Satchel has a right to demand from the Client documents which prove the legal source of money related to the Payment Order. In case the Client does not submit such documents, Satchel has the right to refuse to execute the Payment Order of the Client.

5.23. Satchel has the right to involve third parties to partially or fully execute the Payment Order of the Client, if the Client's interests and/ or the essence of the Payment Order require so. In the event that the essence of the Payment Order of the Client requires sending and executing the Payment further by another financial institution, but this institution suspends the Payment Order, Satchel is not responsible for such actions of the financial institution, but makes attempts to find out the reasons for the suspension of the Payment Order. Satchel has the right to suspend and/ or terminate the execution of the Payment Order of the Client, if required by law or in case it is necessary for other reasons beyond control of Satchel.

5.24. In case Satchel has refused to execute the Payment Order submitted by the Client, Satchel shall immediately inform the Client thereon or create necessary conditions for the Client to get acquainted with such notification, except when such notification is technically impossible or forbidden by legal acts.

5.25. Satchel shall not accept and execute Payment Orders of the Client to perform operations on the Account of the Client if funds on the Account are arrested, the right of the Client to manage the funds is otherwise legally limited, or in case operations are suspended by applicable legal acts.

5.26. If money transferred by the Payment Order is returned due to reasons beyond the control of Satchel (inaccurate data of the Payment Order, the account of the recipient is closed, etc.), the returned amount is credited to the Account of the Client. Fees paid by the Payer for the Payment Order execution are not returned, and other fees related to the returning of money and applied to Satchel can be deducted from the Account of the Client.

5.27. Satchel has the right to return to the issuing side any incoming transaction, which appears suspicious in any way, and charge the applicable fees from the Client's account. The fees may include the standard charges for a wire transfer or a SWIFT confirmation procedure to identify the account number of the issuer and allocate the returned funds there. The fee may be higher depending on the destination, currency and, if applies, foreign currency conversion.

5.28. The Client agrees that Satchel will transfer Personal Data of the Client to persons directly related to the execution of the Payment Operation, such as international payment card organizations, companies processing information about payments by payment cards, the provider of Payment Services of the recipient, the operator of the payment system for execution of the Payment Operation, intermediaries of the provider of Payment Services of the Client and the recipient.

5.29. If necessary and/ or required by institutions of other states, Satchel has the right to receive additional information (e.g. name and surname/ title of the Payee, a payment code) required for the appropriate execution of the Payment Order.

5.30. When executing Payment Orders initiated by the Client, Satchel shall transmit to the Payment Service provider the information (including Personal Data of the Client) specified by the Client in the Payment Order.

5.31. In case of the death of the Client (where a client is a natural person), the Account of the Client will be closed and the funds held by the Client will be transferred to the account indicated by the successor. The actions indicated in this Clause will be implemented following the procedure provided under the applicable laws.

5.32. Satchel will charge all appropriate fees related to the closure of the Account. If no successor claims the remainder of the funds (i.e. it is not indicated where the funds should be transferred) in the Account within 12 months, Satchel will also charge the funds in the Account with a 0.15% daily fee.

5.33. The Client agrees that Satchel, when providing Services, may use services by the counterparties (including but not limited to, banks, electronic money institutions, payment institutions and other financial institutions). Satchel is entitled to attract the counterparties for the provision of Services without prior agreement with the Client.

5.34. Certain clients may be subject to the advance payment requirement which allows Satchel a better protection against possible risks and expenses associated with particular Accounts. Satchel notifies such Clients of the requirement and the advance payment is only imposed with prior agreement by the Client.

5.34.1. Advance payment is kept for 45 calendar days after the Account has been closed. If additional expenses associated with the Account emerge after the Account has been closed, Satchel may retain the advance payment longer than 45 calendar days. Satchel also has a right to charge emerged expenses from the advance payment. If the amount of the advance payment is not enough, Satchel might claim other expenses appeared from the activity of the Client in the court.

5.34.2. Satchel may release the advance payment before the Account is closed.

5.34.3. Satchel does not pay any interest on advance payment.

6. Pricing

6.1. Pricing of Services (the Pricing) is provided on <https://satchel.eu/fees/> and is considered part of these General Terms, if other prices are not agreed between Parties (Parties' representatives). Satchel is entitled to unilaterally amend the Pricing and to change the amount, frequency or time frames for payment of any fees and/ or charges relating to the Services provided. Satchel shall notify the Client of these changes 5 (five) Business Days before the new/ amended Pricing takes effect unless the legislation of the Republic of Lithuania stipulates another period of time.

6.2. The Client confirms that he/ she has carefully acquired with the Pricing and payment terms that are applied to and relevant to the Client.

6.3. Fees payable by the Client will be deducted from the Account balance.

6.4. All of the fees are non- refundable.

6.5. All the fees to Satchel are paid in EUR. In case there is not a sufficient amount of funds in EUR currency within the Account, Satchel arranges exchange of the required amount of funds to EUR. Satchel has a right to exchange money to necessary currency by applying currency exchange rate published within the System. In case there are Electronic Money on the Account and also funds in other currency than EUR, Satchel will exchange Electronic Money into fiat (EUR).

6.6. The Client commits to ensure that there will be sufficient amount of money on his/ her Account to pay/ deduct all the fees payable to Satchel. If the Client does not pay Satchel for provided Services in due term, he/ she pays 0.2 per cent from the amount for each day overdue.

7. Prohibited actions

The Client is prohibited to:

7.1.1. violate the rights of Satchel to trademarks, copyrights, commercial secrets and other intellectual property rights;

7.1.2. provide false, misleading or incorrect information;

7.1.3. provide financial services without a prior consent of Satchel;

7.1.4. refuse to provide information requested by Satchel; transfer and/or receive money acquired in illegal manner;
